1 & 2 Corinthians: Love And Truth: The Passion Translation

Synopsis

Many see the letter of 1 Corinthians as a letter of correction. Indeed, there were many errors that had crept into the Corinthian belief system and into their spiritual walk. Some of the issues that Paul needed to address included: 1: Their need to live godly even in a corrupt culture 2: Their need to be unified as one body without competition 3: To maintain the priority of sexual and moral purity within the church 4: To understand more completely the role of spiritual gifts in the context of the church 5: To embrace love as the greatest virtue that must live within our hearts 6: To maintain orderly worship with proper respect toward one another 7: To keep the hope of the resurrection burning brightly in their hearts But 1 Corinthians is not all correction. There are many wonderful teachings that Paul gives to the young church that will impact your life as well. He tells them that they possessed every spiritual gift, they were fully equipped to minister to others, they were capable of demonstrating love to all, and that the hope of a future resurrection brings meaning to our lives today. Second Corinthians is one of the most personal and intimate of all of Paul's epistles. He opens his heart to the church of Corinth, tells them secrets of his miracle encounters with Jesus, and instructs them in how to live in one continual triumph after another. The victory of Christ shines through both of Paul's letters to the Corinthians. It will change your life and enrich your faith to be all that God has destined you to be. The truth of 1 and 2 Corinthians must be released into the world! Listen to it and be transformed!

Customer Reviews

This brilliant translation comes from Greek, Hebrew, and Aramaic. The author includes insightful and illuminating notes to explain why he used the words that he did. A major difference between this and other translations is that other translations seem to be more more intellectual and this leans more toward emotion. The result is a more vibrant and worshipful translation. I highly recommend it!

I really enjoy reading the Passion Translation along with my NKJ. It reads in today's language and gives texture and clarity. Holy Spirit speaks through this translation too. If you seek truth...He will guide you into it.

Provokes new insights from familiar passages, especially the footnotes are valuable and worth the price alone. Would recommend to those that have studied the Word of God for years and also, to first time readers.

Best of all translations. Can't wait until he comes out with the whole bible.

All Passion Translation books are amazing eye openers to the true origins of the original text very powerful life changing word of God

Love this translation

Loving it! The love language in it is so reflective of God's heart. I fell in love with all of them. Waiting for the other ones you be translated to the passion translation.

Love this translation!
