For more than 30 years, Dr. Pattie Gibson has taught a variety of highly successful courses in computer applications and business systems to high school, community college, and university students in Arizona and overseas in West Berlin and Stuttgart, Germany. Dr. Gibson is currently an assistant professor in educational leadership at Northern Arizona University. She has written and co-authored several textbooks addressing office management and office skills as well as customer service. Dr. Gibson received her undergraduate and master's degrees from Arizona State University and her doctorate from Northern Arizona University.

I purchased this book to use to do trainig sessions for CAP certifications on a volunteer basis. I contacted the company on the website provided in the book for access to the Instructor material, never received a response. Very dissapointed because that is why I purchased this book for the activities. If some how I do get access later I will revise this. I gave it four starts because of the non-response for Instructor access. As far as a study guide it is excellent covers alot of areas and I like the activities for the students on line.

The book arrived in great shape! I would recommend this book to anyone looking into a profession as an office manager!

Was all I expected. .. :)

GoodÃÂÃÂ•

Needed for a College class & this was exactly what was needed.

this is an excellent book for class. very easy to understand and well laid out. i needed it for class, and i was able to find it here for much less than my school was offering. very happy.

Great condition

The book is okay.
