I cant wait to start the first book of the series.

Exciting and holds your interest! Keeps you guessing like all of James Patterson's books. Readers use voices and intonations to match the content. Makes driving in my car for work much better.

Love James Patterson. Love everything I have ever had by him.

awesome booklisten to it in one sitting

I am a fan of the "Women's Murder Club", so I was very happy to get a copy of it on Audio CD.

So poorly written it does not appear to have been written by Patterson. Makes the police appear quite incompetent. Written more like a romance-mystery without the romance. Plot was good, presentation was juvenile, as if by someone who has never really had any life experience. Hopefully, no one, woman or man, will ever achieve the rank of lieutenant in a police force with the lack of qualifications of the main character. I would have quit halfway through the book but elected to continue to see if it improved, then, as it didn't, in order to leave an accurate review.
