Stephen Arterburn is co-author of the best-selling "Every Man" series from WaterBrook Press. He is founder and chairman of New Life Clinics, host of the daily "New Life Live!" national radio program, creator of the Women of Faith Conferences, a nationally known speaker and licensed minister, and the author of more than forty books. He lives with his family in Laguna Beach, California. Fred Stoeker is an author, lay minister, and conference speaker who has counseled hundreds of couples in how to connect in intimate relationships with their spouses. Fred, founder of Living True Ministries, and his wife, Brenda, live with their four children in the Des Moines, Iowa area. Mike Yorkey is the author, co-author, or general editor of several books for men, including Daddyâ™s Home, The Christian Dad Answer Book, and all the books in the Every Man series. He and his wife, Nicole, are the parents of two college-age children and live in Encinitas, California.

I purchased the Cd's because I wanted my boyfriend and I to listen to these as quickly as possible. And its easy to listen to while driving. This book is very informative about how men are wired sexually. I am a 35 Year old woman and I was shocked that I still didn't know this information about men. It explains how men can control themselves from lust and fantasys if they want to try. I think men of all ages should read this book and even when guys hit puberty. This would be good for them to understand themselves and how to stop lust.

Good book to get your boys that are interested in being a decent human being and have convictions.

Good book to use with young men who want help. Would also be helpful for parents and mentors who are trying to understand the addition of pornography in men.

A good set of verses to go along with the companion book - Every Young Man's Battle. The only reason I didn't give it 5 stars is because the content is basically a rehash of Every Young Man's Battle.

Very good book! Thank you.

for starters, i am 18 and still in high school. i have just as many sexual struggles as any other young man and this book is the best thing that's ever happened to me. it's provided many hopeful messages about honoring God and women and i've found it to be more encouraging than the Bible (at least in the area of sexual temptation) it not only gives facts and statistics, but what women think and also real-life stories that have much more impact than the Bible's harsh preaching. it was an incredible book and i will continue reading it and encouraging others

While there is nothing particularly new in this version of Arterburn's message, it does provide practical and tactical ways for young men to avoid the plague of pornography and objectification of women. In this world awash with sexual images, young men need tools to remain pure and holy as they mature toward righteous manhood. By the way, Saphire has never gives a rating above 1 star as of 1/13/2006. He/she appears to be a non-Christian and angry towards God and men. Take care in accepting that opinion.

I thought Arterburn's book, "Every Man's Struggle" was a single book. I didn't know that it would give way to a whole raft of books, workbooks, CD's, tapes, sub-books, on and on. But I guess I'm not surprised that it happened, it makes the bucks and that's what it is all about for this author. So, you are born and in time you realize you have certain feelings, God-given, human desires. But WAIT! Arterburn and Co. have a message for you because they have a pipeline direct to the Almighty. What gives them the authority to decide what is between one person and God? That is the most sacred relationship! Arterburn's message is, 'Don't think for yourself, listen to we, 'the chosen!' We KNOW what's right!' And with banners flying, and drums beating they march backwards through time proudly proclaiming: 'The earth was created in six days, Eve literally ate a bad apple, a snake talked to her, God made the sun stand still so a war could be fought' and on and on (Cue a southern preacher with a loud voice and a bad combover: GLOWRY HALLELUJAH!!) These "defenders of the faith" perpetrate their fundamentalism because people don't want to think. They want someone to lead them, pat their head, and tell them they are a good boy/girl. Before you buy this book, consider a fact: Jim Bakker, Jimmy Swaggart, Ted Haggard, Rush Limbaugh, Laura Schlessinger, and others were the ones who yelled so loudly about immorality, were so self-righteous, judgemental, stern, and dogmatic. And yet? Yeah, you get the idea. The irony isn't only inescapable, it's tragic because it is done in the name of God.
