..,"pleasing-to-the-eye introductions to correct behavior, especially suitable for classroom use."..,"The writing is clear, no nonsense. The correct behavior is highlighted through an example...followed by the sentence "He [or she or they] is [or are] using good manners," which strengthens the message....Especially suitable for classroom use..." --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Amanda Doering Tourville is the author of more than 15 books for children. Her book Rain Forest ABC: An Alphabet Book (Capstone Press, 2004) was nominated for the 2005-2006 Mocking Bird Award. The same book was also on the American Library Association's booklist of Outstanding Science Read-Alouds. Amanda currently lives in St. Paul, Minnesota, with her husband and her chinchilla. She loves animals and would have an entire zoo if she could. She also enjoys traveling and photographing wonderful, exotic places. Her photography has been featured in books and magazines.

Very nice illustrated series with concrete reminders pertaining to manners.

illustrated and easy to read for students. helped them understand the need for manners on the bus and school.

I really like this book for teaching younger students about school bus safety. It is easy to read and very colorful which appeals to younger students. Great choice for bus drivers to share with their students.

Excellent product!! Definitely recommend!! :)

Cute book for preschool and k-5 grades. Bought this for my friends son he loved reading this with his big sister.

Helped a great deal with worries ridding the bus.

Love it
