Customer Reviews

Quite an informative read, I praise The Most High blessing me with these books, and for not keeping these "mysteries" out of my life. Minus the fact that the name of The Most High is certainly not "jehovah," I enjoyed reading (with replacing the names). Both volumes have given great spiritual and mental encouragement. Thank you Mr.Charles for translating.

Great product which have exceeded what was expected.

This is a great book.

Very great to own in your library my fellow Israelites.

Excellent book. Filled with good knowledge for those looking to learn.

I loved the information it's self...But the covering and pages were soaked in water and then dried so the color by the binding and the outside cover were in horrible condition....very fragile. I knew when I bought it that it had "wear&tear" but that was a understatement.

Mr. Charles was able to chronicle through the research of biblical manuscripts that are housed in various libraries and museums about the world to bring this information to the light of day. Although, the publication went to print in the early part of the twenty century, it is informative and relevant today.

Outstanding Resource to use along with the Canonize King James Bible!
