Customer Reviews

For my purposes, this package of book and tape have been excellent. I wanted a book I was very familiar with and not very difficult. I have been able to both read and listen to the book with a reasonable degree of comprehension, even though my French is only at an intermediate level. My ability to hear words spoken at normal speed has been considerably increased. I have found I can comprehend the written word pretty well. A couple of things are a little jarring, like the change in the name of Hogwarts, but that's the translator's choice, nothing to do with the value of the book.
