Customer Reviews

My son, 7 years old loves the Jonathan Park stories and listens to them before bed. He has been listening to them for a couple of years. Great adventure without being scary. Good truths to them as well.

This review is not only for this volume, but overall for the Jonathan Park CD's that one may purchase from . We have so far bought the first 5 albums of Jonathan Park, which are very entertaining and also gives solid scientific and biblical information for the children, with a few exceptions. The 3 star rating is due to the software on the CD's that are sent, when buying from . In absolutely none of the CD sets we have received has the MP3 information on the CD's been correct. For example, when inserting the first disc, you will either see the titles of the albums and/or episodes as "episode 1", "disc 1" or in certain albums, it has shown entirely different episodes than what they actually were (and sometimes the wrong album name). If you want to burn the CD's onto your computer for listening, or transfer the mp3's to your iPhone or Android, you will have to spend many hours of renaming the albums, titles, tracks, etc. This is highly irritating. It would be nice for the albums have have more professionalism on the software side of he CD's before being sent off to . Has anyone else experienced this?

Listening to good, moral and exciting adventures helps to develop creative minds. These particular radio dramas are fun to listen to in the car or during afternoon rest time, etc. I recommend all the Jonathan Park radio dramas because they are good character building and moral adventures.

You can never go wrong with this series. My 9yr old girl loves it. At home. In car. On iPod. Wherever. Even when she's ill, she will listen it. Recommended!

Thank you

I wanted to let people know how wonderful these CD's are. I originally purchased one set at a homeschool convention but after my children's begging for more every time we got into the car, I purchased the entire series. What a great product, offering so much information regarding a creationist perspective. It answers a lot of questions in my children's heads about what they've heard others say versus what we say as Christians in a fun and entertaining way. Hats off to the producers.

Can't say anything bad about it. My Children have all of these in this series and really enjoy them. Makes them think! I have had some great discussions with my children after they have listened to these CD's. Great stories with Biblical discussions of Creation vs. Evolution. WOW! We are Loving it!

If you are a fan of Adventures in Odyssey then you will love this series too! It holds kids attention as well as gives them information on defending creation, a Creator and their Faith. Good, Clean, Faith Based Entertainment for the family!!
