Self-taught artist John Kurtz has illustrated licensed characters for Disney, Sesame Workshop, and Cartoon Network. His projects include illustrations of the Coca-Cola polar bears and the Pepperidge Farm goldfish. He is also the creator of www.clauskids.com.

Actually, I would give this product 4.75 stars and that is because the paper is too thin to take markers. Otherwise it is what it says--a fun book of clever drawings showing various unicorns having different kinds of fun mainly in beautiful natural settings. Great for children but fun for us old folks who still like to color too. In fact, I don't think the kiddos are getting this one. Good job, Mr. Kurtz! As for the vendors, Any Book, they shipped fast, sent a product which was exactly as described, and actually followed up with an email asking if I was satisfied with the order. Certainly I would consider doing business again with them. Good job to you, too, Any Book!

Oldest grand daughter loves coloring and she's definitely enjoying coloring with this one.

Lots of unicorn pages to color. Nicely done. Did not come with crayons or markers like some said theirs did, but that's ok.

My daughter, who loves unicorns, loves this book. She's spent hours coloring in it.

She loved it!!! Fun for anyone who loves Unicorns

Lots of pictures. Good size also.

Lots of different pictures of ponies and rainbows, etc to color. My daughter loves it.

Loved it
