Customer Reviews

While this CD set is in a very nice carrying case with a magnetic clasp, and the sound is clear, unfortunately the background music (with an occasional drum beat etc) is distracting, and, and for me personally, the person narrating it has a 'southern preacher' sound that I don't care for. If you prefer a southern preacher reading this and background music then you will really enjoy this. I'm used to Alexander Scourby with no music/dramatization, so this was a let down for me.

I love the narrator's voice. The words of the NCV are easy to follow. The simple words of the NCV put much more power behind the message. The background music makes the message even more powerful. I recommend this to anyone who wants to study the NCV or have a better understanding of the Bible in general. I have just listened to the first couple of chapters of the book of John. WOW!, what power and beauty. These cds are worth it for the price. Buy it, You won't regret it!
