The Truth About Eden: Understanding The Fall And Our Temple Experience

Synopsis

The Eden story is our story. In The Truth About Eden, Alonzo Gaskill expounds upon why the story of the Fall and redemption must become our personal narrative. His exploration of the third pillar of eternity shares invaluable insights that will change the way you respond to the Savior's loving directions---and evil's enticements.

Customer Reviews

Professor Gaskill does an excellent job of explaining the symbolism of the fall, both in the scriptural accounts and the Temple presentation. Points that I use to find confusing or contradictory are easier to understand now. The book is well researched and extensively documented. I highly recommend this book to anyone who would like to further their understanding of the Temple experience. --Even the footnotes make for great reading. They often lead me to short reads of other texts. This is a great gift for a departing or returning missionary, or even a wedding gift. There are many passages worthy to commit to memory for sharing with others or for personal guidance. There were about 2 pages regarding Eve, that while not inaccurate seemed to be missing much of the real intent. It just incited more study, which is a good thing. Will study again "Eve and The Choice Made in Eden". --This is the most concise explanation of the fall and the garden that exists. I word highly recommend this book. --

This is the most concise explanation of the fall and the garden that exists. I word highly recommend this book.

Love this book. I highly recommend reading all the foot notes.

This is an awesome book with great insights. I am not finished with it yet, but I have learned a lot about temple worship.

An in-depth study of the story of the Garden of Eden. Very well done, although there is some repetition between chapters.

Helped me better understand the temple.

It was excellent.
