The Netherlands has always been a haven for tourists from around the world. In fact there is a yearly increase in the number of tourists who visit the country. World-renowned for its Delft pottery, windmills, and tulips, the Netherlands is also famous for its free-spirited capital, Amsterdam. Found in the northwestern part of Europe, the small country boasts the Frisian Islands, canals and bridges, farmlands, beautiful villages, and highly populated cities. Amsterdam is the most popular city in the country because of the party scene, the red light district, the Anne Frank House, art museums, medieval architecture, and scenic canals. Tourists can start from this city and take advantage of different day tours to check out different places around the country. The Hague is known as the Dutch royal family's home as well as the seat of government. Zaanse Schans and Volendam are popular for their customs, windmills, costumes, and traditional Dutch houses. The town of Lisse is a popular tourist spot for its flowers during spring. The town of Alkmaar is a great place to visit for its cheese market. The Netherlands is known for its cuisine, which basically consists of vegetables and meat, Dutch apple pie, smoked sausage, and fried meatballs. Tourists can also opt to dine in different international restaurants around the country. In terms of transportation, tourists can get around by buses and trains. ## Customer Reviews

This is a great buy for the $.99 price deal. 2 books in 1. The travel guide for the Netherlands is very comprehensive. It includes an overview of the top tourist cities as well as places to eat and shop. I particularly liked the chapter focused on the best beaches of the country as I love going to the beach. I also liked the in-depth chapter about arts and cultural spots. Great guide, easy to read. The Dutch guide goes along great with the Netherlands book for obvious reasons. I found it simple and easy to understand. It included several necessary phrases you would need for traveling. Most beneficial and great deal for the price!
