RON ROY has been writing books for children since 1974. He is the author of dozens of books, including the popular A to Z Mysteries®, Calendar Mysteries, and Capital Mysteries. When not working on a new book, Ron likes to teach tricks to his dog Pal, play poker with friends, travel, and read thrilling mystery books. STEPHEN GILPIN is the award-winning illustrator of dozens of childrenâ™s books, including the popular and very funny Pirate Mom. He brings his fresh, kid-friendly style to all the covers of the A to Z MysteriesÂ® series.

I read this book with my 7-year old daughter after reading the A-Z mysteries Super Editions 1-4. These books are amazing/fantastic (says my daughter). I read these books with her as part of her elementary school reading marathon, and finished reading them all (1-5) in one week. All these books are very well written and kids remain interested till the end when the mystery is solved. There are, as usual, multiple suspects and guessing the right one is always the best part of reading with the child. Strongly recommended for parents to read with their children.

Used as a raffle item during Chinese new year

It's just a really boring, short book. I think that the average 1st grader could read it, maybe even an advanced kindergarten child. All in all, not such a good read. :P

Great series. Kids love the characters and stories. Continuity in the characters, Easy reading about 5th grade level I would guess. Interesting stories that keep them interested.

This book was a great book. I liked it because it had action. I recommend this book for ages seven to one hundred and seven years old!

I read a few pages of the book. But I think that it is easy that I read this English of the book and the story, too is interesting. I recommend Japanese who study English the book.

We love all the A to Z mysteries! It's perfect for late elementary children!! My kids can't put them down! We now have them all!!

My son loves this series :) great adventures
