Dechari Cole is the founder of GL4G (Girls Living 4 God), an organization that wants to help break the mold of Hollywood and society’s norms of self-indulgence and instead push for a movement of girls who are wholeheartedly learning to trust and seek God’s wisdom and instruction. She lives with her husband in Nashville.

I am grateful the author is willing to share with honesty and transparency, the everyday challenges in her personal life, that others can see more clearly the importance of making good decisions, not just in the big things but also in the smallest matters. Even though the book is geared to young girls, I can say with certainty that women of all ages, especially single and single-again, can learn things that may prevent future heartache in their lives. I would be very surprised if anyone would read this book and not think of someone who would benefit from reading it as well. By the way, the book

DOES have a wonderful ending! I wholeheartedly give it five stars!

I know the author of this book and I decided to get the books for my granddaughters. I was wanting to have them inscribed but she hasn't been in town. This is a little girl's book. And it is not just a book to sit on a shelf but is filled with words to treasure. Every little girl deserves to be a Cinderella.

Great study! I'm 16 and I got a lot from it! Even though it is a book for girls I think some parts would be really helpful for guys too! My only thing is that there should be some bits for the guys as well, boys also struggle with finding "the one". But overall I am very impressed.

Such a great read! The questions at the end of each chapter really helped you take in and think about what you read. I very much recommend this book!

An enchanting book. I loved hearing Dechari's personal story and learning from her journey. This book is relatable, fun, and also contains practical steps to help find our own fairytale endings.

Interesting story but lacks expression of wisdom

Finding Your Fairytale Ending was a book I picked for myself that I gained a lot of value and insight from for my children as well. Our society has become one of convenience and need. Our children are learning to look for love without finding value and without valuing themselves. Through Finding Your Fairytale Ending you'll learn how to teach your children to wait for the one meant for them instead of shacking up with the first guy who shines his smile their way. This book is a great way to help your child find the "right" one with God leading their way.
