The Annotated Luther, Volume 5: Christian Life In The World (Annotated Luther)

Synopsis

This volume (volume 5) features Luther's writings that intersect church and state, faith and life lived as a follower of Christ. His insights regarding marriage, trade, public education, war and are articulated. His theological and biblical insights also colored the way he spoke of the "Jews" and Turks, as well his admonition to the German peasants in their uprisings against the established powers.

Customer Reviews

Hans J. Hillerbrand is professor emeritus, Duke University Department of Religion. He has served as president of the Society for Reformation Research and the American Society of Church History. His many publications include volumes on Christian history, Protestantism, and the Reformation.

Volume 5 continues the fine scholarship and superb design of earlier volumes. Read, study and learn why the Lutheran tradition has had such a powerful impact on our faith tradition.

Excellent series! I would recommend to purchase all of them.
