Dr. Herbert Lockyer was born in London in 1886, and held pastorates in Scotland and England for 25 years before coming to the United States in 1935. In 1937 he received the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Northwestern Evangelical Seminary. In 1955 he returned to England where he lived for many years. He then returned to the United States where he continued to devote time to the writing ministry until his death in November of 1984.

F.F. (Frederick Fyvie) Bruce was born in October the 12th, 1910, in Elgin (Scotland), to a Brethren Assemblies family. His father was an itinerant preacher for the Assemblies. F.F. was baptized and accepted as a member of his local congregation in September 1928. He remained loyal to his denomination for the rest of his life.

âœThrough my own experience with the Brethren, I can say they are the ideal place where a lay theologian can serve the Church with his giftsâœ (Restrospect, p. 285). As a lover of the Bible and of the classical languages, when he was only 10 years old, he started simultaneous studies in Greek and Latin. F.F. was admitted to Aberdeen University in October 1928. He studied also in University of Cambridge (England, 1932-34) and in the University of Vienna (Austria, 1934-35), studying in preparation for his Graduation and Doctoral degree, excelling in both. Bruce taught Greek in the Universities of Edinburgh (1935-38) and Leeds (1938-47). Afterwards, he taught Bible History and Literature in the University of Sheffield (1947-59) followed by Bible Criticism and Exegesis in the University of Manchester (1959-78). He lectured in prestigious universities all around the world: Marburg (Germany), Amsterdam (The Netherlands), Auckland (New Zealand), and Makerere (Uganda). He also lectured in numerous Theological Seminaries, among them the Calvin Seminary, in Grand Rapids (U.S.A.) and the Union Seminary, in New York City (U.S.A.). He was voted President by the prestigious Societies of Old Testament Studies and New Testament Studies. F.F. Bruce wrote some 50 books, plus several thousand articles, essays and reviews. His masterpiece The Acts of the Apostles: The Greek Text with Introduction and Commentary (1951) marked for the evangelical world the beginning of a new era in Bible study, being seriously considered by the Academia. In spite of never having made formal studies in Theology, he was an extraordinary reader of the subject and the Aberdeen University granted him in 1957 a Doctor Honoris Causa degree in Divinities.

Exactly what I needed to be able to understand words and terms I wasn't familiar with.

Extremely valuable for reference. Well put together and very informative.

I have purchased several of these books and always end of gifting them. I find them perfect for studying to receive the revelation of God's Word based on information and definitions used at the time being referenced. It really makes a difference even if you use Strong's Concordance or other dictionaries. It has a great deal of historical information, pictures, etc.

Wonderful purchase, wonderful book. So glad I bought it. Real nice addition to my library.

Beautiful illustrations and text on the entire bible, I really loved it. I gave it to my sister for a gift and will order my own copy next month. Thank you for making the book so inexpensive and available for everyone to enjoy!

Pros -- It is full of Bible references to validate its definition of names, places, items and what not. It has been around for a while under different covers, but the content has remained the same. I've even ordered one for a friend who will be getting ready to finish his term at a Bible Institute. Cons -- The paper quality is not very good. It is a shame, because the content is good. However, with care, the book can be preserved for many years.

large type. easy to read. pictures are good quality. well worth the price.

I was pleasantly surprised at how wonderful this bible dictionary is. I am so happy with it and I love it. I read & study it everyday. The shipping was fast. The shipping and price of the book was very affordable and that was great. Would recommend this seller. Thank you so much for a easy, pleasant transaction.
