Susan Hagen Nipp received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in music and a minor in education from Whitworth College, in Spokane, Washington. She has taught high school English, and music on the elementary school level. She lives in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, with her husband Charlie. They have two children. Pamela Conn Beall received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in music and a minor in education from Oregon State University. After college, she became an elementary school music teacher in the Portland area. she currently resides in Lake Oswego, Oregon, with her husband Ron. They have four children.

I had read reviews in many places praising highly this series, along with recommendations from friends. While the book and songs are indeed well done and complete, I was surprised and disappointed by the style of music. Unfortunately, as with most "children's music" today, it is loud, synthesized and busy sounding. Now, this may work well with toddlers, but for 0-9 months? I tried playing it for my baby (3 months) and he became irritated each time. So I ended up using this CD simply as a refresher course, singing the songs myself. I will save the CD for when he is a toddler...

perhaps he will enjoy the style of music then. If you are looking for a simple, easy to listen to, gentle CD to play with your baby, this is definitely not it. If you are looking for a professionally produced, well researched, active and busy CD for your 1yr old +, you are likely to enjoy this CD series.

I bought this hoping to find a collection of simple songs to sing with my baby during his first two years of life. There are some simple songs (Wheels on the Bus, Head Shoulders Knees and Toes, etc.) but more than half the cd are little kids reading poems and nursery rhymes. Also, the dialogue tracks aren't separated out so there is a music track, followed by 2-3 talking tracks before the next music track begins. The cd is fine, but it doesn't suit my purpose. I wanted something I could put on and sing/dance with for 15-20 minutes of playtime. It's a pain to have to constantly jump tracks.

A nice way to encourage new parents to sing to their baby!

Once again the "Wee Sing" series did not disappoint me. I bought several "Wee Sing" books/CDs for an American friend who is living in Belgium and wanted to be able to share traditional children's songs, rhymes, etc. with her new grandchild. Since I didn't have much room in my suitcase, the "Wee Sing" products were perfect! Additionally, because they include a CD, the baby's mother (who does not speak English) can use them, as well! The perfect solution. And the price is right. The only confusing thing with the product information was that it was unclear whether there was a CD with some of the books. (As it turned out, there was--but I couldn't tell that for sure from the description.)

This little book appeals to little ones through the song and illustrations. It has been a favorite with all of my grandchildren. I do wish this was available NEW.

Wee Sing music is The Best. All those songs that should never be forgotten. Upbeat, but not too-too cute. Not a bit cloying like too many other kids' music sources. I buy all the Wee Sing editions I can find. (There are a lot.) Wee Sing for Baby is just as great as the rest.

Best cd for children ever. My grandchildren love these songs and so do I. The songs are singable, the singers and accompaniment professional. The quality of the sound is excellent. A great learning tool for our youngsters.

Very pleased with my purchase and experience with .
