Customer Reviews

Lydia Hess looks to the natural world and iconic symbols for inspiration in her artwork. Her graphic montage images combine colorful monoprints, pen and ink scraped clayboard carvings, and antique engravings. She enjoys working on many different aspects of the creative process, including art directing, picture editing, designing, and illustrating. She currently does all of the above at Amber Lotus Publishing and loves the diversity and the opportunity to collaborate with other artists and image makers. Hess has a series of adult coloring books; Sacred Nature, Sacred Symbols and others, published by HarperElixir, an imprint of Harper Collins publishing.

I love Lydia Hess artwork and this calendar is no exception.
