KAREN DOCKREY earned a Master of Divinity from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Her passion is the Bible study experience and then living the truths discovered there. She has designed Bible study curriculum, edited it, written it, and regularly uses it. JOHNNIE and PHYLLIS GODWIN co-wrote the Bible Dictionary.

Sorry to say I was disappointed in the Bible Dictionary. It has a lot of valuable information but I found that some of it is not accurate because it is based on the author's own belief system. Every church has its own belief system. While the Bible is supposed to be the basis for virtually all Christian churches there are over 3000 different denominations, not all large, because there are variances in their beliefs due to the fact that they either interpret some texts based on their own notions, or what they want the text to say. Or they ignore some texts because they contradict their teachings. The Bible interprets itself if one will read on and wait to find the true meanings and not jump to conclusions. See, 2 Peter 1: 20,21; 1 Corin. 2: 12-14; Isaiah 8: 20, and Acts 17: 10,11.

not many definitions in this book, but it's great to have as a starter

This is a great book for anyone who likes to study the bible and especially for new believers. The condition was great and the seller was awesome.

This Bible Dictionary is a wonderful, quick resource while learning about the Bible and trying to figure all the main characters and the locations. It is a fast reference and doesn't slow you down trying to move forward in the stories and lessons. I bought it for my children so they could sort out the different kingdoms, tribes, groups, cities, alliances, etc. The dictionary explains the term or location, and then refers the reader to the proper section in the Bible. The maps and illustrations are accurate and well done, the printing and the paper are of high quality, and the book will take a beating while the youngsters are sharing and it passing back and forth. Well worth the price. Good job by the authors.

I just love this book, it really is a lifesaver for me during my bible study at church and at home. It helps to bring a better understanding to bible terms, and make it more simple. I have gotten many compliments on it in church. It arrived in excellent condition. I highly recommend it for anyone who may want bible terms broken down, and simplified.

Bought this for a friend, and she loves it. Over the years I've given quite a few of these to students.

It's full of illustrations, color photos, charts and maps.

Excellent reference book. Good for indepth information and tidbits. I was truly excited to receive this book. The charts and graphs proved to be the most informative aspects for me. Instead of having to search my Bible for this infomation it was put neatly in an usefula nd informative chart ie: the 10 plagues of Egypt, the lingistics, and all the time lines. While studying I find it useful to know these type of things to improve my study time and to get a clearer understanding of the scriptures. I purchased two and gave one as a gift. This book should be included in everyones' library.
