Beautiful images, some very simple, other with lots of detail - all true-to-the-book and gorgeous.

Alright, I will admit, I laughed a lot. The writing was fabulous, the plot felt slightly recycled from The Kane Chronicles and Percy Jackson series, and I noticed every single Doctor Who reference hidden cleverly in the context. Moffat and Riordan could be best friends. Not just because of the sarcastic, funny, pun loving characters, but they both love the cliffhangers.
