Dahlov Ipcar's Maine 2017 Calendar

Synopsis

The year 2017 marks the 100th birthday of artist and illustrator Dahlov Ipcar, and to celebrate the occasion, Islandport Press presents a poster calendar that showcases Ipcar's illustrations of her home state of Maine. Taken from some of her finest children's books, the illustrations in \"Dahlov Ipcar's Maine\" give you twelve images of the state as experienced by the artist herself. Each month, you'll be treated to a glorious new scene of Maine life, including early days cutting ice and tapping maple trees, watching sailboats along the coast, observing the animals in the woods, and enjoying a farmer's bounty. Sail along with Dahlov Ipcar and experience the colors, people, and warmth of Maine.

In a career spanning more than eighty years, Maine artist Dahlov Ipcar has written and illustrated more than thirty children's and young adult books, starting with The Little Fisherman (by Margaret Wise Brown) in 1945 and including The Cat at Night and My Wonderful Christmas Tree. Dahlov Ipcar was born in Vermont and raised in Greenwich Village. She summered in Maine after her parents (the famed sculptor William Zorach and artist Marguerite Zorach) bought a farm on Georgetown Island in 1923. Thirteen years later, eighteen-year-old Dahlov, an aspiring artist, married Adolph Ipcar. The young couple left New York City in 1937 to live on the Maine farm where they first met. By the early 1940s, Ipcar had nearly given up thoughts of writing and illustrating books, when she was contacted by a New York publisher to illustrate The Little Fisherman. The struggling young artist jumped at the chance, and this charming title helped launch a prolific career that saw her write and illustrate more than thirty children's books of her own. In 2001, she received

The Katahdin Award, a lifetime achievement award from the Maine Library Association, and in 2010, she was awarded the New England Independent Booksellers Association's prestigious President's Award for her outstanding contribution to arts and letters.

A gift for a friend "down under." It arrived as advertised and our Aussie friend loves it. Said it is exactly as she remember Maine when they visited a decade ago.

My cousin is a huge fan of Dahlov Ipcar, so he was very pleased to find these colorful tapes under her Christmas tree! Kate

I am a fan of Dahlov Ipcar and this calendar is so beautiful! Great for those who love Maine.
