The Cult of the Jehovah's Witnesses for further study in your Christian Journey.

This book gave me the necessary insight to how fraudulent the JW's have become in their search for 'more light'...They've woven even their version of a Bible around, not the Greek and Hebrew, but their changing doctrinal scheme. They may be sincerely deceived, but they're determinably deceived because they're unwilling to bend to the truth. An excellent read, a must for the serious truth-seeker's library.

I have read many books concerning the Jehovah Witnesses belief system. This is the next best. 30 Years a Watchtower slave is the best and only because the author was a Jehovah Witnesses when it was being changed to a theocratic organization.

Anthony Hoekema (1913-1988) was a Christian theologian who served as professor of Systematic theology at Calvin Theological Seminary for twenty-one years. This book was part of an earlier book, "The Four Major Cults: Christian Science, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormonism, Seventh-day Adventism." Hoekema also wrote books such as "The Bible and the Future," "What About Tongue Speaking?", and "Saved by Grace." He wrote in the Preface to this 1963 book, "The discussion of Jehovah's Witnesses found in this book is organized as follows: First, a brief history of the movement is given... Next comes a summary of statistics and activities. Then the question of the final source of authority for the group is taken up. The doctrines taught by Jehovah's Witnesses are next expounded..."Here are some quotations from the book:"Against this background, it is highly significant that the word 'spirit,' when used to designate the Holy Spirit, is never capitalized in the New World Translation." (Pg. 27)"Thus, by a calculation which involves a conglomeration of figures derived with great ingenuity from assorted passages taken from Luke, Daniel, Revelation, and Ezekiel, we have arrived at the year 1914. Here is 'knight-jump exegesis' with a vengeance!" (Pg. 43)"How 60 member nations (in the United Nations) are pictured by 7 heads and 10 horns (of Rev 17:3) we are not told." (Pg. 44)"When will this battle (of Armageddon) be fought? At the close of the 'time of the end,' which will be very soon. It was affirmed in 1952 that this was would begin inside our generation. In a volume published in 1958 we are told that many people alive since 1914 will still be living when Armageddon begins." (Pg. 103)"The results of this terrible battle will be worse than those of any previous war in history... Only faithful Jehovah's Witnesses---members of the remnant or of the other sheep---will survive Armageddon." (Pg. 105)

This is an excellent book on the Jehovah's Witnesses. It is both reasonable and fair yet does not shy away from robust criticism of the theology of the witnesses. Find out about "knight jump exegesis"!
