I'm still reading it for the first time; but, it won't be the last time. This reference book brings understanding to what before seemed odd (in terms of our own social system). I keep finding myself saying, "Oh, so that's why....." and "Listen to this... "

I have not been able to put this book down since purchasing it. It has really enriched my bible reading to learn the things discussed in this book. The pictures and illustrations are fantastic. I love the references to bible verses so that you can cross reference what the book is discussing.

I'm a seminary student in the process of studying Principles of Biblical Hermeneutics. This book give understanding to the everyday life of the people during biblical times. It's a great reference book to use for lesson preparations.
