Robert B. Parker is the author of more than forty books. He lives in Boston.

if you are a fan of the Spenser series, you won't be disappointed.

good stories as are all Parker stories

With that said, however, "Hugger Mugger" isn't my favorite Spenser book, probably because we don't see Hawk, and there's not much of the guys, or even Susan. The best thing about it, in my opinion, is that we first meet Tedy (sp? Such is a problem with audios. LOL) Sapp. The whole horse lifestyle is so foreign to me it just leaves me cold, which doesn't help. "Potshot" IS one of my favorites, though. It's pretty much all the guys, all the time--Tedy Sapp, Hawk, Vinnie, and more, which is what I like. Their picking with each other is what MAKES the books for me. I always enjoy listening to Joe Mantegna. While I prefer the voice he uses for Tedy in "Potshot" and later books, I suspect his voice is "Hugger Mugger" may be more realistic to what is described for the character in "Hugger." So, in short, I'm rating "Hugger" at 4 stars and "Potshot" at 5, and 5 for Joe Mantegna, too. Since I can't do fractions or decimals, I figured best to round down to 4. My vote is for more Spenser audio collections too!!!!

as expected, good read (listen)

Great story and interesting character. This is a good series to get wrapped up in.
