Customer Reviews

This book will be useful to Christians of many denominations especially those that celebrate Holy Communion (Eucharist) regularly and have traditional Christian observances like Ash Wednesday and the like. It is probably particularly appropriate for Methodists, Lutherans, Episcopalian, Catholic, Orthodox and Anglicans. The majority of the book is or comes from scripture. Much of the language and material from the original book of Common Prayer in 1549 has obviously been updated although the original statements are included. Many of the prayers are particularly thoughtful---see Prayer for the Church # 7 page 816. The copy I received is nice quality blue leather, two ribbon markers, quality sewn binding and gold gilt page edge.

Just what I needed. As described. Fits in my purse for daily prayer anywhere. Attractive.

This is a nice, quality BCP. The only caveat is to take note of the size. I wanted this to carry in my jacket, But, if you are going to read aloud, and/or have limited close-up vision, buy a larger size.

In every regard the product and delivery met my expectations.

Gift for newly baptized adult friend, well appreciated!

I'm really surprised at the near perfect condition of this precious book. I love it. Thanks.

This was a gift to a young man headed for a military college. Thanking me, he said it was a perfect size because he only had small box for his personal belongings. BCP is a great gift for graduation to remind young people to go to Church.

Received the Book of Common Prayer for my birthday. I love the book, but the quality is not what we had hoped. When ordered it said "leather bound." The box and the book do not say "leather bound" anywhere. It does not "smell" like leather, and it is not stamped "leather" on the cover or inside. The box says "Economy Edition" which kind of cheapened our order. However, the contents are what are great, and so we've kept the book. It's also a nice compact size, and will be a good companion. Just wanted to give folks a "heads up" in case you think you're ordering an extra special edition of this great book.
