Dick Lohr did a great job. I had this save DVD many years ago but the lessons are timeless. It had been a few years since I listened to it but when I got it I ran through it at least 3 times just to burn some of it into my memory. Great stuff!

Great info

If you want information on advanced delegation then this isn't it. However if you are seeking information that will take you through the basics of delegation then this might be a good place to start. This tape set introduces you to the very basics of delegation in a step by step process allowing you to gain an understanding of what delegation means. I wouldn't recommend this to a Fortune 500 Company Director but in general it makes a great start up compliment for the newly appointed manager...
