Customer Reviews

Bought this for my 15 year old daughter who is studying the Bible at school. She says she turns to this book on a daily basis because it explains what she is reading in everyday language. She is VERY HAPPY that we purchased this book.

was not what I expected. I thought it was the whole bible but it is not. It is more of about 20 to 50 page summary kinda of

The only difference between "The Book for Teens" and "The Book" versions are the added notes/comments that teens can relate to and apply in their lives. They are so relevant and needed for teens growing up in today's world and I thank God for this edition.

I have bought several of these Bibles for the you kids in my Sunday School class. They can understand the Bible easily when reading this one.
