I have went to a two night, three day Catholic conference with my family as well as with a group of people. We went to I have brought the bible to the conference and everyone was looking over my shoulder and asked and asked me where I got the bible because everyone there including me who love the colors and what each color of the bible means as well as it was very easy to read! I was so pleased with the bible, I will buy another one for for my family as well as my friends! I am also pleased of God's word and what it His word stands for!
