Customer Reviews

Book by Mark Twain, Grover Gardner (Narrator)

This audio book was purchased for a trip with our two 12 year old granddaughters. Both of them enjoyed the story and had questions about the differences between the 1800s and now. This gave us an opportunity for expanded discussion about how life has changed and why slavery and prejudice must be stamped out and how what we say can truly be harmful. The reader does a fine job. We enjoyed the story yet again, not having read it for many years.

The disks in this package of CDs were faulty. I had purchased the package for a long drive to the Ghost Ranch in Abiqui, New Mexico; I had tested the first cuts of disks one and two before we left and they were OK, but once we were an hour or so from home the remaining cuts were unplayable.
