Customer Reviews

"A quantum leap forward, a work of such quality that it can serve, as the KJV and RSV once did, as the definitive translation for North American readers." --Christian Century "Will be used by millions...for public and private worship."--Time Magazine

This has been the standard translation in every class I've taken in Seminary. Having experience with many translations, I find it to be the best blend of accuracy and readability, faithful to the earliest texts in Hebrew (Old Testament) and Greek (New Testament) and easily understandable to modern readers.

This is a bare-bones edition, with few notations. It's hard to read, so if your eyesight is challenged, you need to get something else.

This is a readable version with print that is easy to read on thick enough paper to avoid bleed through.

ok

This is a very good text. Type not too small, paper good, size convenient.

Great Bible translation. Print is a bit small.

Love it.

Excellent shape!
