Venerable Mother Mary of Jesus of Agreda, also known as the Blue Nun, was born in 1602 at Agreda, Spain. She possessed a considerable amount of divine knowledge even at a very young age, and consequently was confirmed at just four years old. When she was twenty-five, Mary was instituted as president of a Franciscan nunnery that her mother left behind after the older woman's death. She wrote fourteen books throughout her lifetime, among them the four-volume Mystical City of God, and also served as spiritual advisor to King Philip IV of Spain. It has also been said that her writings were inspirational for Mel Gibson as he produced his film The Passion of the Christ, released in 2004. Mother Mary of Jesus died in 1665 at the age of sixty-three, and less than ten years later was declared venerable by Pope Clement X.

This book gives me the chills each time I read it. Brings me to a better understanding of what my Lord did for me. Written plainly and easy to understand. Really beautiful portrayal of the life of the mother of God; full of hope!

LOVE, LOVE, LOVE this book!!!!

Love this book. I have read it a few times and have bought several copies for others. This book opens so much revelation and insight it really is a must read. It is also very easy to read.

This book is deep and true! You will never think of the Blessed Virgin as an ordinary woman again.

This book tells about the life of the Most Holy Virgin Mary from her conception to the life of herself and the apostles and her Assumption into heaven. It does much to increase one's faith and create a sincere love of Mary and the cost she paid in our redemption.

It teaches things about the Holy Mother that I never was taught about her life and her divine connection with God. Great read.

This book will absolutely let you look into the life of our Blessed Lady with more understanding !! Mary never wanted any glory for herself, just for her Son!! This book tells Mary's life in ways you can understand and be in awe of!!

The book is quite old, and I sent it to my sister, will have to order another one for me!
