SAVED AT SEA: An Inspiring True Story Of Survival At Sea

Synopsis

For 3 terrifying days Michelle Hamilton, clung helplessly to her small capsized canoe in the South China Sea. Menaced by hungry sharks, enduring tropical storms and with no food or water, Michelle hovered near death. For Michelle the miracle is not so much that she survived, but how she survived! At critical moments, she heard an audible voice telling her exactly what to do to survive. Featuring world wide in Readers Digest, this modern day Jonah tale of Michelle's experience with a merciful God and an amazing encounter with angels, is a story that will not only thrill but challenge you to have 100% Faith in God, in the midst of your own storms. Co-written by Michelle's mother Rachelle, she shares her story of a mother's tireless vigil to find her lost child, of human helplessness and the intervention of a sovereign God.

I really liked this book. Had not heard about this before.

Harrowing!

I'm not sure why I chose this book, unless to say it is God's will. It is written well, easy to read. The message hit me as it should, to take me back to Him our Lord and Spirit.

See above I have witnessed my thoughts and express my interest and feeling please pass this on to your readers

I enjoyed this book from beginning to end. Once I started reading I could not wait to find out what happened next.

Good story. Well written and suspenseful, although it gets bogged down in religion in a few spots.

Grest book, I couldn't stop reading. Recommend it.

Very intriguing and uplifting
