Customer Reviews

I have read several of the amazing stories of Medjugorje. I ordered this book because we Catholics really do not "hear" much about Purgatory any more. As a child goig to Catholic school we always prayed for the Souls in Purgatory. I read this book in one night. I now do pray for the souls in Purgatory again . It would be good idea to first read a book on Medjugorje by Wayne Weible if you are not famaliar with it. It will renew and stregthen your faith

Very good book about Purgatory

This illuminating interview of a simple Austrian woman, who God graced with the charism of communicating with souls from purgatory, will motivate you to have Masses said, without delay, for your deceased relatives and friends as well as for those unfortunate souls in purgatory who have no one to pray for them. Maria Simma is a highly credible mystic, well known in her native country for finding the living relatives of souls who have appeared to her and implored her to have their relatives make reparations for the wrongs they have done. She has, in numerous instances, possessed information that no one in her capacity could have obtained, but from the decedent himself. It is a short book, but makes the important point that God is so holy that we must be perfectly purified to be in his Divine presence. Contrary to what one of the other reviewers stated, there are two types of pain in purgatory: the pain of separation from God; and the pain of sense (physical suffering). Make no mistake, it is a place of excruciating suffering. Almost all theologians teach that the souls in hell and the souls in purgatory suffer the action of the same fire. The same fire, says St. Gregory, torments the damned and purifies the elect. In my opinion, the quintessential book on purgatory is "Purgatory", by the 19th century French theologian, Fr. F.X. Shouppe, S.J. sells it. Thank you.

Pray for the living and those who passed away that they earn their freedom from Purgatory should that be the case... I am grateful to know I can pray for their release to heaven... the Blessed Mother Mary says that is the most common way for them to leave purgatory and enter heaven... based on their contriteness and humility. You will count your blessings you read this book.

It's not exactly catechetical, but it is still an amazing and enlightening book, and I highly recommend it to anyone wishing to learn more about the souls in purgatory.

Read this book and develop devotion to the Souls in Purgatory. These souls are in Purgatory as punishment for sins committed on earth. The good thing is that they will go to heaven thereafter. These souls can pray for everyone except for themselves. It is up to the living to pray for the repose of their souls.

Very nice book about what the souls in purgatory need. Fast read, can be done in less than an hour. But really makes you think after you read the book.
