This new volume has a great variety of princesses represented - Cinderella, Snow White, Tiana, Aurora, Belle, Jasmin, Ariel, Rapunzel, Mulan, Pocahontas and Merida. The text is a large font and the illustrations are colorful and well sized. My 4 year old loves it!!

Purchased this for my daughter and she absolutely loves it. The stories are new and are well written. For the stories that I've read, there is always a moral to the story which is nice. The images are well done. The hardcover version is very nice. The cover is nice and thick. The paper appears to be of high quality and is strong. My daughter hasn't ripped a page yet and she's not easy on her books. We purchased this along with Princess Adventure Stories (Storybook Collection), they go great together and cover the entire princess gamut. Would definitely recommend these books.

Beautiful book. My daughter will love. It looks like the pages are lined with "gold." We already own Disney Bedtime Stories and read it almost every night. I'm sure this book will be the same. Excellent price!

There are some grammar issues and misspellings in this book. Aside from that, the book and the stories are pretty much what you would expect-- some new stories and some are pieces from the princess's movies. My daughter was very very excited to have the collection. Pictures are well worth the purchase.

I keep buying all of these princess books because my daughter can't get enough of them and we read them so much we have the stories memorized fairly quickly...keep 'em coming Disney!

Very cute short stories involving several Disney princesses. The stories are not selections from the corresponding movies for each princess. It is a pretty large hard cover book, and includes color pictures on each page. Any young princess-lover would enjoy this collection.

These stories are a big hit with my 3 year old. The only problem is that I get asked to read "ONE MORE STORY, PLEASE!" all the time. (Not really a problem!)

While this book has great stories and quite a few of them, when I got the book the seam was cracked and pages have started falling out of the spine. Hopefully mine was a one in a few of being poorly made and others do not have the same problems.
