Angie Smith is the wife of Todd Smith (lead singer of Dove Award-winning group Selah) and author of Chasing God, I Will Carry You, What Women Fear, and Mended. She also has written two children's books, For Such A Time As This and Audrey Bunny. Along with being an accomplished writer, Angie speaks to and encourages thousands of women each year. She lives with her husband and daughters in Nashville, TN.

I did this bible study on my own, I actually didn't use the DVD and i may go back and watch later. This was a good bible study for someone who doesn't know a lot about the bible and wants to get a better understanding of how it all goes together. Probably not the best one for someone who is well versed in the bible.

This was a fascinating Bible study for me. It ties the whole Bible together as one "Seamless" story.....It made it easy to understand and easy to read. This book and women's Bible study on this book at my church got me back in to reading my Bible, and understanding how it all goes together. Loved it!!!

I have been raised in church since I was a child. Someone recommended his Bible study and so I bought it. It starts off kind of slow, but by Day 3 it picked up and I started learning things that I never knew. I ran some of the things by my preacher and he confirmed them for me. There are some parts that don't match up with my King James Bible, and, by this, I mean there are verses that she says to read that seem like I'm reading the wrong verse altogether because it doesn't make sense with what she's teaching. I ignore those and move on. Other than that, the only complaint I have is that it's pink. I'm not finished with the study yet, but I haven't found anything in it that makes it a women's study. I feel like the pink will put men off from reading it and for no good reason other than its pink. It should be a lot less feminine because it's not a study that's just for women. It's a great study.

I bought this after hearing so many good things about it from people in our church. I got myself and my daughter one. We are both reading it and doing the study. It is such a simple book that at first I thought what? But we are both enjoying this so much. The Bible doesn't read in chronological order but this study makes it simple and thought provoking. All the lineage gets confusing. This brings it all together. This is a study everyone that wants to understand the Bible more should read. I get something new everytime I read a chapter.

This was a great Bible study! It takes you through the bible from start to finish in such a non-threatening way. It allows you to really focus on the themes that run throughout the Bible.

Best bible study ever! Explains everything so simply, gets you thinking, and relates it back to every day life. So many questions have been answered! The videos are amazing as well, and totally worth purchasing. Angie is such a sweetie. I highly recommend this to anyone craving more information about the bible, and a relationship with Jesus.

Leading a Bible study to those who know the Bible and those who don't. A blessing and inspiration and easily understood. Great study and captions and helps.

This was a wonderful Bible Study. Easy to follow and I loved the questions at the each chapter which helped me review what I learned.
