"This is a necessary and useful presentation of this key foundational text. Hardy's helpful edition should go a long way toward making the Book of Mormon approachable not only for Mormons themselves but also for religion scholars whose familiarity with LDS traditions may outweigh their knowledge of the scripture itself."

A reader-friendly edition of the Book of Mormon, for Mormons as well as non-Mormons --This text refers to the Hardcover edition.

Enjoyed commentary and appendices. The text itself is not truly more flowing nor easy to read than the standard works version.

Very thoughtfully broken up into paragraphs and meaningful dialog. This is such a fun way to read the Book of Mormon. It helps you focus more on the story and the characters rather than just the verse numbers and stuff.

This makes reading the Book of Mormon a far easier and inspiring process. I hope the Church adopts this as the standard version for all to enjoy.

Life long devout LDS. Been having trouble reading BoM lately. Was skeptical but this is helping me a lot. Would prefer no verse numbers at all, and the kindle sample has no actual content example at all which was frustrating (just has intro and table of contents) other than that am enjoying on kindle paperwhite.

Makes the Book of Mormon much easier to read and understand. Should be on every member's tablet. Also a ton of information in the appendix that you won't find in any other single book.

It is awesome to be able to read the book of mormon in this format. I feel like I can concentrate more reading it this way then having my eyes go back and forth every 2 seconds.

This book is another witness to Jesus Christ. Why wouldn't you want to know that. A history of people living on this land at the same time Christ was in the holy land.

Love this edition - so readable.
