a little worse for wear

This book is everything that I heard it would be. It is a pleasure to read, and a joy to spend time in. The writers were monumental figures in the Christian arena, but here they have a way of making me feel that they are speaking on my level and directly to me.

Bought as a gift-receipient happy!

A great book for any Bible interest person. The writings of the author's are fabulous. They are written by Charles Spurgeon, Luther, and many others. It has been very difficult to write this review since this is not a true word processor.

Before I have read this book, I'm thinking why all of those man is very wonderful Christian man as other people said that I don't know what They're thinking about Christ. After I read this book, That would be amazing that God choose those man to speak about God's word to every single man with Christ's Heart

I loved this book. I could feel God's presence as I read the pages of the sermon's of these men of the past. I'm so glad their sermons were in print for all of us to read. Next to my Bible, it's my favorite book !
