Great condition

This is the last of a three volume series on great doctrines, which deals with doctrines of the church and eschatology, there are 23 chapters each of which covers a lecture. On doctrines of the church he deals with the following topics: the Church, the marks and government of the church, the sacraments, baptism, and the Lord's Supper. On eschatology he deals with a wide range of subjects: Death and immortality, Conditional immortality or a second chance? The Second Coming - a general introduction. The time of his coming - the signs. God's plan for the Jews. The antichrist. The interpretation of Dan 9:24-27. Daniel 9 concluded and the secret rapture. The book of Revelation - introduction. The preterist and futurist views. The spiritual historicist view. The suffering and safety of the redeemed. The trumpets. The final judgement. The premillennial view. Post-millennialism and the spiritual view. The resurrection of the body. The final destiny. This book would suite someone who is already familiar with the doctors writing or someone who has a special interest in eschatology, especially in Revelation, which has eight of the twenty-three chapters devoted to it. In many of the chapters on eschatology he is dealing with sensitive and controversial issues and I found it interesting and intriguing to read the doctor's views on these matters when he wrote in the 1950's. I would suggest that his careful interpretation of these difficult scriptures is well worth reading in our more sensationalist times today.
