Customer Reviews

2 Volume set of Tozer's sermons. Beautifully bound.

I love Tozers writings, I wish I would have checked into this a little more before I bought it though. I was expecting something more substantial. The chapters are only a couple pages long and they are edited down versions of his sermons. The chapters very loosely relate to each other for several chapters and then the theme changes to something else. Don't get this and expect a deep look at Tozers writings or to be really able to understand his theology on a certain topic. This is more of a devotional that can be read chapter by chapter in about 5 minute sessions. I will admit I have not read the entire book yet, it looks like there are some more substantial chapters later in the book. I will update this review later if I find anything different. Don't get me wrong though, nothing wrong with the content, it just wasn't really what I was expecting.

Two wonderful books. Many topics covered. Tozar has such great insight and one gets the feeling that his writings are divinely inspired. An absolute must for supplemental reading

Thanks!

Tozer is an excellent scholar. He presents his material in a no-nonsense present-day style. Great for sermon helps.
